About Oman Connect

This unique event will bring together leading national operators, EPC contractors, and developers to learn about opportunities across the entire energy sector in Oman.

This in person event will also provide an update on the current market and deliver supply chain briefings on current opportunities. We will also cover areas for those new to the market or looking to export for the first time, allowing you to navigate through the various actions required for you to undertake business in Oman.

At Oman Connect you will:

- Learn about upcoming projects in the region
- Understand more about the 'energy sector' within KSA
- Attend company presentations and network with key industry players
