MARKET INTELLIGENCE

Ivory Coast has emerged as a one-to-watch market in West Africa as numerous discoveries will help unlock available hydrocarbon resources. The presence of international oil companies is leveraging opportunities for the supply chain industry such as equipment for vessels, well services, drilling supplies, etc. The positive momentum in the O&G industry is mostly driven by the Baobab field and the Baleine field, while single discoveries such as Calao and most recently made, Bubale, presents new investment scenarios.
